

AAP

June 27, 2016 11:53am

Metallica Minerals has received $900,000 for the sale of the non-core Boyne limestone project in Queensland.

The $900,000 is the balance payable by the private buyer to acquire for $1 million the two granted mining leases that form the project.

Metallica has $2.3 million in cash following the recent rights issue.

Originally published as Metallica gets \$900k from sale